THANK YOU FOR YOUR SUPPORT!

Senior Games has been a good influence in keeping active. As I strive to regain my strength and weight after a bout with lymphoma, I realize how much I missed playing badminton with our group.

NCSG Ambassador

The well being of those seniors involved in fitness programs is well documented. We who are senior citizens find a sense of community in Senior Games, thus easing loneliness, which can lead to depression and a host of other health issues. The North Carolina Senior Games program provides innumerable opportunities for feelings of pride and self worth at a time in life when we may begin to doubt our abilities. We are among the most vital, active, alert and able group of folks I have ever met—of Any age.

We need to stay that way.
